

BARON WINS AN HEIRESS.

He Is Penniless and Horsey, but Will Wed Miss Sherman.

She Is the Daughter of the Kentucky Racing Man.

Baron B. F. Grunbaum has captured an American heiress. He is to wed Miss Lily Sherman, of Gallatin, Tenn., the daughter of the famous horse-breeder of Lexington, Ky. She is about nineteen years old, very handsome, and is said to have an income in her own right of $25,000 a year.

The Baron met her at Hot Springs, Ark. Their acquaintance began in a romantic way, and the Baron was not slow to press his suit.

The marriage is to take place at St. Patrick's Cathedral, on Fifth avenue, on the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 20. A special dispensation is to be obtained, as Miss Sherman is a Protestant and the Baron a Catholic.

Baron Grunbaum's life has been an eventful one. He has attracted considerable notice in this city since his first came here three years ago. On his first visit he was received with open arms by the Four Hundred. His title, his mustache, and his companionship with the nobility of Europe obtained for him an entrance into New York's most exclusive society.

He soon was reduced to the plebeian tone of food and horse racing, and soon was reduced to the plebeian necessity of toiling for his bread. He was at one time an inspector at Ellis Island.

He once sued the proprietor of the Hotel Victoria for $20,000 for an alleged insult.

Before coming to this country Grunbaum led a gay life, and his father disowned him. His father was a wealthy Austrian nobleman. Young Grunbaum, now about thirty years old, was in the suite of the Austrian Emperor when he was in Ireland on a steepsheeping tour.

He has the reputation of being a duelist. He is said to have engaged in four duels in Austria and two in Paris, one of the latter with the son of Lord Drouot, the fighting Deputy of the French Chamber. The Baron carries Deroude's pistol bullet in his body.

Grunbaum went to England and ran in sixty steepsheeping, forty of which he won. He was a guest of Lord Spencer, Master of the Pichey Hounds. Afterwards he went to Ireland as the owner of various Irish lords of sporting blood.

He returned to England and followed the races. At the end of the season he owed $100,000 to the bookmakers, having lost $80,000 at the Liverpool Grand National Steepsheeping. He was almost ruined in paying the debt, and refused to further recognize his son.

Then Grunbaum came to America. After the marriage the Baron is to take his bride to Europe, and will visit his father at Griesen.

Capital and Patience. These make a queer combination apparently, but they have been of the utmost importance in the furniture and carpet trade for many months. For instance, practically all of the customers of the Cornerthwaite concern, on Park Row, near Chatham Square, have lately asked extensions of time, and the firm needed a great deal of both capital and patience to grant it.

Some smaller dealers have been forced to the wall, and others have been forced by their own necessities to push their customers to extremities, but the old Cornerthwaite house have let everybody pay them when convenient, and so made hosts of friends.

When you buy household goods on credit you take the chances of the future, and it is just as well to have a strong arm to lean on. If you have agreed to pay $1 a week and cannot pay over $1, you would be in a bad fix if your sellers either could not or would not be accommodating.

FIVE NEW STEAMSHIPS.

Hamburg-American Line Will Have More Freighters.

The Hamburg-American Packet Company has just made contracts for the construction of five large steel twin-screw steamers for transatlantic freight and passenger traffic. Three of the new steamers will be built by Harland & Wolff, of Belfast, one by the Vulcan Shipbuilding Company, of Seattle, and one by Blount & Voss, of Hamburg. The steamers will be 460 feet long, 22 feet beam, and 25 feet depth and of 7,000 tonnage each.

These new steamships will have all the latest improvements in steamship engineering, such as double bottom with water chambers, two sets of engines, shafts and screws.

The Hamburg-American Packet Company now owns a fleet of 24 steamers and other mail steamers. When these five new steamers are completed the Company's total tonnage will be over 200,000 tons.

Struggling for Wife and Children.

A STROKE FOLLOWED BY NEUROUS PROSTRATION.

Hood's Restored Health.

Mr. Edward Scollin.

Philadelphia, April 7, 1893.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Gentlemen: On Aug. 10 I was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, New York City, with a fever, my temperature was 104 degrees. I remained in the hospital two weeks; I was unable to work for four weeks after that, but then felt compelled to turn in, as I have a wife and five children. I soon began to feel as though undergoing continuous shocks from an electric battery."

Every Nerve and Fibre of my body seemed in a constant state of quivering agitation and tremulousness. Heat flashed from the calves of my legs up through my thighs and body; my left arm and hand felt as though on fire, and my head acted as if it would split when I stooped down. I had great pains in my back around the base of the spine. I continued through all this to stick to my work, feeling that if I must go on I would do so.

Struggling for My Family. I have always been athletic, but I had lost all appetite, and my strength failed me. I was on the point of giving up. I had read much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and concluded to give it a trial. Before I had taken half a bottle my appetite became so voracious that I would be compelled to eat between meals.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has now fully restored my strength and general health. That terrible nervousness is entirely gone. I feel as hearty and vigorous as ever. The pains in my back have greatly decreased."

MUST HAVE PURE ELECTIONS.

Ex-President Harrison Demands the Federal Election Bill's Fate.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Ex-President Harrison arrived in this city last night to attend the National meeting of the Loyal Legion. Over his after-dinner cigar in his room at the Grand Pacific Hotel, he stated freely about the report in the House of Representatives of the Federal Election bill.

"We are saving the need of doubt," he said, "in breaking away from the National law. The people of this country will not submit to choice of their officials by the direction of the dagger's tip. Above all this we must have pure elections."

In my message to Congress I said nearly all that could be said upon this subject. Our election must be above suspicion of fraud or fraud. Citizens will not permit officials whose actions are questioned or known to have been secured by palpable or open fraud.

That the colored vote in the South is suppressed or controlled by a despotic force. Take, for instance, the State of Tennessee. Had I received as many votes in the new district counties in West Tennessee in 1888 as Mr. Blaine received in the same counties in 1884, I would have secured the electoral vote of Tennessee by a majority of 6,000 or 6,500."

WILLIAM TURNER FOUND.

William Turner, the three-year-old colored boy who was reported as having been kidnapped from 221 Seventh avenue last Friday, and for whom a general alarm was sent out from Police Headquarters, has been found. James Turner, a house painter, called at the West Thirtieth street station last night and said that an old woman whom he met on the street took him to a house in one hundred and Twelfth street, where he found the lad.

HEIR TO $20,000 IS MISSING.

Hatfield Thinks His Stepson Has Been Kidnapped.

His Sisters Indignant at the Charge Made Against Him.

Inquiry to-day has done little towards clearing up the mystery surrounding the disappearance of twelve-year-old Fred Hatfield, heir under a will to $20,000.

Mrs. Dora A. Wilson, of 321 Ninth street, Brooklyn, and Mrs. Lucinda K. Cole, of 411 Lexington avenue, this city, are sisters of the boy's stepfather. He hints that they have kidnapped "Fred."

Both women are indignant that any such charge should be brought against them. The boy's stepfather, Charles W. H. Hatfield, is an employee on the "E.R. road," and lives at One Hundred and Thirtieth street and Eighth avenue.

He says through his counsel, Lawyer Henry Knox, of the firm of Hurd and Twenty-third street and Park avenue, that when his mother died she left him to his home and real estate No. 35 East Canton street, Boston, valued at something like $2,000.

Following is the section of the will under which Hatfield inherited:

"I, Henry State, William Foster and Alfred H. Cole, sons-in-law, the deceased, do hereby devise the house and real estate No. 35 East Canton street, Boston, and their several and undivided parts thereof, to my son Charles for and during his natural life, and after his death to my son John for and during his natural life, and after his death to my son William for and during his natural life, and after his death to my son Alfred for and
